

Chino Hills Champion (CA)

Talent show will benefit foundation

Published: March 31, 2007

A community talent show will be held at 6 p.m. Wednesday through Friday, April 18 to 20, at Wickman Elementary School to benefit the Let It Be Foundation for children with lifethreatening medical conditions. "The Kids 4 Kids Community Talent Show" will showcase three student acts from elementary schools in the Chino Valley. The event will be preceded by dinner at 5 p.m.

The following schools will be featured: April 18, Wickman, Eagle Canyon, Butterfield, Glenmeade, Chino Valley Christian, Los Serranos, Rhodes, and Cortez; April 19, Wickman, Eagle Canyon, Chaparral, Cattle, Walnut, New Hope Christian, Rolling Ridge, and E.J. Marshall; April 20, Wickman, Eagle Canyon, Loving Savior of the Hills, Dickson, Newman, Litel, and Hidden Trails. Tickets are available for $5 at participating schools, and will cost $7 at the door. Profits will be used to enhance the bedrooms of the ill children being served by the foundation.

The Let It Be Foundation was formed in June 2006 by Chino Hills residents Michael and Ruthe Rosen, after the death of their 15-yearold daughter, Karla Asch Rosen. Information: 606-6503, or visit www.theletitbefoundation.com.

Copyright, 2007, Champion Newspapers, All Rights Reserved.